Sample - External Letter Writers Information

A. ALPHABETICAL LISTING OF EXTERNAL REVIEWERS FROM WHOM LETTERS WERE RECEIVED

Pamela A. Smith MD, Ph.D. (Reviewer A.)

Research Scientist, University of Pittsburgh, Department of Obstetrics, Gynecology & Reproductive Sciences, Division of Urogynecology & Pelvic Reconstructive Surgery. Her research is in the general area of pelvic floor dysfunction. Specifically, she is interested in determining the biological basis for the increased incidence of pelvic organ prolapse following menopause. She knows CANDIDATE through her work and research. (Arm's Length-suggested by Committee)

Ingrid Jones MD, MS. (Reviewer B.)

Research Professor, University of Colorado. Epidemiology. Tenured Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the University of Colorado. Jones is Past-President of the American Obstetrics Society, Vice-Chair of the University of Colorado Institutional Review Board, Principal Investigator for 2 NIH-sponsored R01 research projects, and is a Consultant Editor for Obstetrics and Gynecology, the primary general journal in this field. The primary focus of her research, conducted with investigators from Bioengineering, Exercise Science and Biostatistics, is to understand the association between physical activity and abdominal forces, and pelvic floor disorders in women. Knows CANDIDATE through professional meetings and conferences. (Arm's Length-suggested by Candidate)

NOTE: Our goal is to achieve a balance of evaluative letters from external reviewers who have been suggested by the candidate and from reviewers who have been suggested by the department. External reviewers should be contacted only by the school/college/department.

B. ALPHABETICAL LISTING OF EXTERNAL REVIEWERS FROM WHOM LETTERS WERE REQUESTED BUT WHO DECLINED AND THE REASONS FOR DECLINING

Gregory S. Alexander (Reviewer I.)

Professor Alexander declined because of his limited knowledge of the candidate's work. He is Professor of Law at Cornell Law School, where he teaches real property, property theory, and estate and trust law. He recently wrote a book on property theory that received an award for best law book of 2014 from the American Publishers Association. (Arm's length-suggested by the Department)

Charles Donahue, Jr. (Reviewer J.)

Professor Donahue declined because of a lack of time due to a family emergency. He is the Paul A. Freund Professor of Law at Harvard University, where he teaches property and legal history. He was previously a member of the University of Michigan Law School faculty. He is coauthor of a leading casebook on the law of real property and has written extensively about property and legal history. (Arm's length-suggested by the Candidate)

Carol M. Rose (Reviewer K.)

Professor Rose declined because she is out of the country. She is the Gordon Bradford Tweedy Professor of Law and Organization at Yale Law School, where she teaches property, contracts, environmental law, land use planning, and natural resources law. She was previously on the faculties of Stanford Law School, University of California at Berkeley, Northwestern, and University of Chicago. She is co-author of a casebook on property law and is a leading scholar on property theory. (Arm's length-suggested by Department)

Jeremy Waldron (Reviewer L.)

Professor Waldron did not respond to numerous email requests. He is the Maurice and Hilda Friedman Professor Emeritus of Law at Columbia University where he taught courses in jurisprudence and legal theory. He was previously a member of faculty of the University of California, Berkeley School of Law. He is the author of a book on the theory of private property. Professor Waldron was the candidate's thesis advisor. (Not arm's length-suggested by the Candidate)
